

Guidelines for using Equal Exchange's photos:

We encourage you to use these photos to enhance your Fair Trade events and presentations and when sharing information about Equal Exchange on social media or in newsletters, but we ask that you please follow the following guidelines:

- Credit Equal Exchange as the source of the photograph by citing "Photo Courtesy of Equal Exchange" near the photo
- If using photos that feature a person, please use the name of the subject in your caption. We have provided names in the descriptions.
- You also have permission to include links to any of the free educational resources found on our website to educate your community about Fair Trade.